

30 YEARS PRIOR TO THE “UNIVERSE TOURNAMENT ARC” EVENTS

The planet Kamorie was the home world to the devidlin race, but unfortunately they were a wild and hyper violent race that were in a constant state of war with each other. Many of them were fighting to seize power over the few cities that existed on the planets while others fought and killed just to fulfill their bloodlust.

Currently, there aren't many devidlin left on the planet. Those who wanted nothing to do with the fighting either escaped the planet or were killed for sport by the ones who managed to seize control of power and influence in one of the broken cities. Kamorie today is mostly ruins of a ravaged world, shaded by the giant mountains that cast their shadows in the beautiful sunsets.

SHARK YOMI

Before she joined the Nitro Armada, Shark Yomi was known on the planet Kamorie as the "World's Strongest" and had seized control of multiple cities, leading a small army of followers that would obey her every command.

Once Ryu Owatatsumi learned about the planet Kamorie he sent Barney Vix, 2nd Commander of the Nitro Armada, to the planet to try and find soldiers for the Nitro Armada. When Barney arrived he was intercepted by Shark Yomi and she challenged him to a fight, but to test her strength, Barney told her she had to fight the nitro dragon that accompanied him before she could fight with him. Shark had never seen a nitro dragon before but had heard stories of their immense power, this got Shark very excited and surprisingly she went on to defeat the nitro dragon, killing it by slicing its head off with her Thresher blade.

Shark Yomi's "Thresher" blade is #18 of the 50 legendary blades in the galaxy

After Shark killed the nitro dragon, Barney offers her the opportunity to meet with Ryu Owatsumi so that she might become one of the commanders of the Nitro Armada. Shark agrees to leave the planet with Barney and goes on to meet with Ryu and becomes the First Commander of the Nitro Armada.
